THE ORDER OF SERVICE

8:30 A. M.

THE ORGAN PRELUDE

HYMN 382: "Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken".....Austrian

THE CALL TO WORSHIPBishop Paul B. Kern

The Bishop: It shall come to pass, saith God, I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh.

The People: God hath not given unto us the spirit of fear, but of power and love and a sober mind.

The Bishop: The promise is unto you and to your children and to as many as the Lord our God shall call.

The People: As many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the children of God. Amen.

THE INVOCATIONBishop Wallace E. Brown

O God Eternal, the Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose Name is great and whose goodness is inexhaustible, who are adored by the hosts of heaven and dost accept offerings sanctified by Thy Holy Spirit: sanctify us, we beseech Thee, in body, soul and spirit; touch our understandings, search our conscience and cast out every unbecoming thought and base desire, all falsehood and vain glory and indifference, every motion of the flesh and spirit not in accordance with Thy holy will. And grant us, O Lord, with freedom, with a pure heart and contrite soul, without confusion of face, and with sanctified lips, boldly to call on Thee, our holy God and Father in heaven. Amen.

THE COLLECT: (Here let the people unite with the Bishop in prayer).

O God, our Father, we have come unto Mount Zion. We have built the altar; send thou the fire from heaven. We have spread the table; break thou the bread. We have opened the Book; shine thou upon its pages. We have gathered about the Cross of our Lord; be thou in our midst. Here, in this high hour, we would gain strength for our labors and consecration for thy kingdom. Fulfill now the desires and hopes of thy servants, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth and in the world to come life everlasting: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE HYMN OF PRAISE 164: "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name"Coronation

THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING.....Bishop William N. Ainsworth
(Here let the people be seated and bow in prayer).

O God, the Father of all mankind, we lift up our hearts in gratitude for the devoted and good through whom we have received our evangelical heritage of fellowship in thy Church and Kingdom; those who having experienced the Christian purpose have wrought well and built nobly, into the fruit of whose labor we have entered. We give thee hearty thanks for our fathers and brethren who beheld the vision of a community of faith within thy Church Universal spreading Scriptural Holiness throughout the world, into whose goodly inheritance we have come. We pray that a double portion of the spirit that lived in their souls may possess our lives, that with steadfast courage and unwavering hope we may fulfill in our time the tasks put into our hands to do: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT: (Here let the people unite with the Bishop in prayer).

O God, our Father, thou Spirit of holiness and truth, bring us into unity of love and consecration which may bear some likeness to the blessed nature of our Lord; grant us the spirit of peace and grace that, thy universal family may be devoted to thee with their whole heart, and kept in the unity of thy Spirit in the bond of peace: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Here let the people stand and remain standing for the Canticle of the Church and the Gloria Patri).

THE CANTICLE OF THE CHURCH.....Bishop Wallace E. Brown

The Bishop: Arise, shine; for thy light is come; and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

The People: For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth; and gross darkness the people.

The Bishop: But the Lord shall rise upon thee: and His glory shall be seen upon thee.

The People: And the Gentiles shall come to thy light; and the Kings to the brightness of thy rising.

The Bishop: Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all that gather themselves together, they come to thee;

The People: Thy sons shall come from afar: and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

The Bishop: Then thou shalt see, and flow together: and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged;

The People: Because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee: the wealth of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

The Bishop: I will make thee an eternal excellency: a joy of many generations.

The People: Violence shall no more be heard in thy land: wasting nor destruction within thy borders;

The Bishop: But thou shall call thy walls Salvation: and thy gates praise.

The People: And the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light: and thy God thy glory.

The Bishop: Now unto the God of grace: for the might of His Spirit and the love of Christ;

The People: Be glory in the Church throughout all ages; world without end. Amen.

THE GLORIA PATRI:

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen.

RESOLUTION: Rev. D. Trigg James read the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, the transfer of the Bluefield District of the Holston Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South to the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church creates a financial problem for the Holston Conference of the Methodist Church, the successor to the Holston Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, due to amortization agreements entered into by the said Conference of the former Church while the Bluefield District was an integral part of the said Conference; and

Whereas, the Enabling Acts passed by the Uniting Conference, governing the transfer of a part of one annual conference to another, do not seem to give specific guidance for the solving of this unusual problem of finance; and

Whereas, this matter demands immediate attention and solution for the good of both of the said conferences, we recommend the following action:

First, that the Holston Conference of the Methodist Church now in session, being the successor to the Holston Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South instruct the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance to release to the West Virginia Conference and to the Board of Education thereof all claims to the 40% return from the fourth Sunday offerings to the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise contributed by the church schools of the Bluefield District, any offerings contributed on Church School Day by the Bluefield District; and that portion of the Conference Benevolences contributed by the Bluefield District which has formerly been apportioned to the Board of Christian Education for (1) Board Operation, and (2) for Hiwassee College.

Second, that the Holston Conference instruct the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance to request the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance of the West Virginia Conference to return to the Holston Conference that portion of the Conference Benevolences contributed by the Bluefield

District which has formerly been apportioned for the payment to the amortization of (1) Martha Washington College Bonds, (2) Centenary College indebtedness, and (3) Triangular Mountain Institute indebtedness. Since the Bluefield District paid .173 per cent of the total payments of the Holston Conference on its benevolences last year, the amount would be $2,726.67 in actual cash return; we are not asking for the total apportionment.

Third, that this Conference request the Bishop and his Cabinet to appoint a Commission to meet with a like Commission from the West Virginia Conference for the purpose of arbitrating this and all other problems incident to the transfer of this said Bluefield District from the Holston to the West Virginia Conference.

"WHEREAS, we have been deeply moved by the inspired and timely declaration of the President of our Conference concerning the Christian attitude toward war, and

WHEREAS, we are aware that throughout history the Cross of Christ and the sword have ever been opposed, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT, we, the membership of Holston Conference of the Methodist Church in annual session at Knoxville, Tennessee, endorse the pronouncement of Bishop Kern in regard to the curse of war as a relic of barbarism and paganism, and

THAT yielding to none in true patriotism, we as representatives of Methodism which has made so definite contribution to the building of this nation, recall the words of John Wesley that "War is a reproach to the Christian name, to the name of man, reason and humanity" and that "when war breaks out God is forgotten," and

That as ministers and laymen we constantly work and pray for peace, avoiding by public or private utterance any statement which could contribute toward a fatalistic state of mind that the entrance of this peace-loving nation into a foreign conflict is inevitable, and striving that we not be a party toward creation of a sentiment of international hatred or prejudice, rather than the cultivation of a spirit of love and Christian brotherhood, and devotion to the ideals of the Prince of Peace in a day when His teachings are being tested, and

THAT we commend the plan of our Young People's Organization in the observing, as a part of the Youth Crusade, of Armistice Day next month as a time for special meetings in the interest of world Peace, and that we urge all our pastors and laymen to co-operate with our young people to the end that they may have such a program in every Church on November 11, or on the following day, Sunday, the 12th, as our Methodism lays to its heart the cause of Peace, praying that Christ may sit in the councils of nations and that to His stainless banner all may pledge allegiance."

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. GREER,
WILLIAM M. DYE,
JAS. N. HILLMAN,
J. L. ROBB,

COMPOSITE REPORT

of the District Superintendents of the Holston Conference

October 4-6, 1939

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Seventy-five years ago this last July, a group of Methodist men met in the city of Knoxville, for the purpose of planning for the reorganization of the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this Holston country.

The next year, in June, at Athens, Tenn., Bishop Davis W. Clark came down from Cincinnati, Ohio, and led in the reorganization of the Holston Conference with a beginning membership of about Five Thousand persons.

Activity of our group in these sections as an organized body had been discontinued since 1844.

While B. M. Martin was secretary of Holston Conference, he compiled the journal records of that Athens conference, which is very interesting reading indeed. The names of those early fathers are there recorded, none of whom now remain here, but to some of us who are still here, some of these names are very familiar.

Many things and many reminiscences might be profitably indulged in, under other circumstances, but these would not be fitting nor necessary here. We are not looking backward, but forward. The history of the past is made. We cannot change or undo that. The history of the future of the Methodist Church is yet to be made. We may review the past, but our duty, our hopes, our faith and our confidence are centered now on the possibilities which lie in the future, and in our living relationships in laying the foundations of a new, and greater Holston Conference.

This report, is what we call a Composite one; so we shall now hear from the districts as such:

Harriman District: The Harriman district is rather of a 'shoe-string' formation, along side of four of our former Methodist Episcopal districts, and four of the former Methodist Episcopal South, districts. We have in this district also, the unique distinction of having one completed, Norris Dam and Lake Area, within our bounds, and two other uncompleted dams, one of which (Chicamauga) will touch the lower end of the district, and the other (Watts Bar) will be entirely inside the lower end. We also have two concrete highways running through and across the district in several directions. These are No. 27 to Cincinnati, and No. 70 to Nashville.

The work of the district has been carried on with a great degree of faithfulness and sacrifice on the part of all the pastors. There were twenty-four charges at the beginning of the year, and one, Crossville, has been changed to the Tennessee Conference. Now, the Presiding Elders of the former Southern Methodist Church, enter the bounds of this district from four sections, Morristown, Knoxville, Sweetwater, and Chattanooga. This of course should, and doubtless will be remedied in the interests of economy and unity, in due time, and on reorganization of our district lines in Tennessee.

It would be impossible, in a report like this, for all details of the activities of the pastors and churches in the district to be stated. But, some important advances have been made.

Our Young People's work has prospered greatly. We have five sub-district group organizations which carry on with regular monthly meetings, and with increasingly efficient leadership. We had our yearly School in Christian Living, at Grand View, Tenn., and this meeting was well attended, and efficiently guided by Dean Carey, and a competent staff of instructors. We also had a three day rally on Cumberland Mountain, for young people in Sequatchie Valley, and this also was well attended and much good accomplished. The entire enrollment for the two meetings, was around 175 young people. Our League and young peoples activities in the individual churches have been very notable and encouraging during the entire year.

The Ladies Aid Society work in the district prospers very greatly. One charge, Oliver Springs, J. D. Babb, pastor, has a society at every point on the charge, and four of these are entirely rural, and are functioning to a very high degree, both in financial and fellowship elements. During the past year, two of the churches on this charge Mount Vernon and Jonesville, have been overhauled, enlarged, and improved, and the Ladies Aid Societies had a large part in the financing of these operations. The Solway church of this charge, is also in the work of completing improvements begun under a former pastor.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the year, is the completion of the Harriman Church Recreational and Educational Project, which was begun several years ago under a former pastor. This church, now, under the efficient leadership of John Baxter Howes, pastor, is again moving forward to its natural place of leadership with other churches in the district.

Vine Grove Church, E. F. Wood, pastor, has been reconstructed and improved, and the Ladies Societies had a large share in the financing of this project.

Spiritual Activity has been good in the district this year, many revivals have been held, with many professions, and additions to the churches.

On The Finances, the pastors and church leaders have worked continuously. There will be some advances on pastoral support and on payments and collections to the various benevolences and conference collections.

THE BRISTOL DISTRICT

The Bristol District is located among the hills and mountainous valleys of beautiful south-west Virginia. Its nine thousand church members, and approximately eight thousand Sunday School pupils and twenty-one pastors, are largely in the rural sections and are sparsely settled over sixteen counties.

The district extends from Roanoke, Virginia, on the east, to near Middlesborough, in the south-west.

Methodist people in this territory, came from hardy and rugged pioneer stock, hence, are men and women of intense feeling, and strong convictions. They have sacrificed and suffered much, labored under great difficulties, and despite these handicaps, have wrought a great work among the Virginia hills and valleys.

A number of Daily Vacation Bible Schools and Teacher Training classes have been held over the district, with a very fine enrollment and excellent results.

The Crockett Springs School in Christian Living, held last June, had the greatest attendance, since it was set up seven years ago. It is doing a magnificent piece of work in building the Kingdom of God in the district.

The Bristol District, for the year ending October 4th, has one of the most balanced reports of progress in most every phase of church work it has had in five years. During the year there has been, about 396 professions, 400 additions, and a 507 increase in Sunday School attendance. Nine charges report an increase in World Service giving. $6,598.00 has been spent on church improvements and, $3,477.00 paid on old indebtedness.

THE CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

The Chattanooga district has gone steadily forward during the past year. The pastors and the churches have been loyal to the slogan, 'An increase all along the line.' To this we all have adhered with a devotion which has suffered no defeat.

Over twenty-five hundred dollars have been expended in improvements and repairs. Eminent among these is the church at Soddy, where under the leadership of the pastor, E. C. Trentham, the sanctuary has been newly frescoed, and new pews placed for a growing congregation. Ridgedale has expended considerable time and money in repainting the parsonage and redecorating the church. There are others who might be mentioned, and who have spent smaller sums in various building enterprises. Three new churches are being built, Jones Chapel, near Athens, Fairview on the Daisy Charge near Chattanooga, and Tellico Plains, where after selling their historic church building to the county, they are planning to erect a structure which will form the head of a new center for religious activity. These new churches will increase the property values of the conference nearly Twenty-five Thousand Dollars.

Three of our churches have celebrated during the past year, their fiftieth anniversary. South Pittsburg, under the leadership of Edgar Eldridge, who is now in Boston Theological Seminary, gathered many former members, and a few pastors, and celebrated their arrival at the half century mark. Highland Park, Chattanooga, under the leadership of Joe M. Hampton, held a period of celebration which proved to be the high water mark, in the history of that vigorous congregation; Copperhill, under the leadership of R. C. Elzey, also celebrated, in a very fitting way, their fiftieth anniversary.

Among the church debts paid this year, has been that of the Jones Memorial in East Ridge, Chattanooga.

The pastor, D. T. Jones, is worthy of the highest praise. He is an accepted supply. He began this work over ten years ago, with a few people who had formed a small Methodist Church in one of the most rapidly growing sections of Chattanooga.

He led them on until after some years had passed they had so increased that their number required a church building. They bought a lot well located in that section, and began to build. The evangelistic was the theme for every service. Scores of people were converted and brought into the church. Time passed and the pastor found himself having an extended pastorate, with almost unprecedented results. He now retires from this charge handing over to the denomination a good property and a large and growing congregation. We should honor him as a brother beloved.

There have been a number of good revivals this year. North Athens at Niota has been wonderfully blest of the Lord. The Daisy Parish has had two wonderful periods of refreshing, resulting in nearly sixty accessions to the church. The largest number of increase in membership is found at Red Bank, with sixty members added to that church.

The benevolent work of the churches has been held high this year. We now predict there will be an increase all along the line.

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

The Johnson City District has gone forward during this past year, making progress along all lines.

While rejoicing in achievements for the church, we have passed through some Gethsemanes.

E. G. Gillespie, pastor at Baileyton, fell in battle, having filled his pulpits the Sunday before he passed away. His son, Bovard, finished the work of the year. Retired ministers who have died during the year are, W. S. Bandy, I. B. Leonard and R. E. Walker. Two local preachers also have died, J. W. Goode, and Vincent Byrd. The other preachers have enjoyed reasonable health, carrying on their work efficiently. Russell Hall, serving the Cosby Parish, returned to Indiana a month ago, and W. C. Sauceman served there the remainder of the year.

There are One Hundred Thirty One churches in the district, including a few abandoned ones.

Seven Hundred and Forty new members were received into church membership this year, making a total membership now about or more than Fourteen Thousand. There are One Hundred and Twenty Church Schools, with an enrollment of Thirteen Thousand pupils. There are Eighty-one Leagues, all groups, enrolling Twenty Four Hundred young people. Women's Organizations are making increases in membership and giving.

Nearly all churches have had revivals, with evangelism pervading all church activities. Christian Education has had its place, in the continued training of leaders among the young people. There were two district schools, Intermediates and Young People, with Two Hundred and Twenty Five in attendance. Daily Vacation Schools were held in most of the charges.

Reports indicate a substantial gain in finances, and pastors cash support amounts approximately to Thirty One Thousand Dollars exclusive of parsonage rent. Other items of ministerial support are paid on a pro rata basis. World Service giving has increased, and also other benevolences.

A new log church has been built on Mountain City Charge, in an unchurched community, at a cost of Eight Hundred Dollars. It opened with more than One Hundred persons in the church school, and this average has kept up so far.

Hunts Chapel on Parrottsville Charge, has added additional rooms for Sunday School purposes costing Nine Hundred Dollars.

On Elizabethton Circuit, Hunters and Valley Forge have made improvements amounting to One Thousand and Sixty-one Dollars, with Bethesda paying Five Hundred and Forty Dollars on its church debt. Greeneville Church has added an additional room, and improved the parsonage at an expense of Fourteen Hundred Dollars. Telford charge has paid a parsonage debt of Six Hundred Dollars. Sulphur Springs Charge and Sulphur Springs Church have paid off the balance of their indebtedness. The Newport debt has been paid, with the exception of a few hundred dollars balance which is covered by pledges. Kingsport and Morristown Churches are reducing their debts, on the church property.

The Johnson City Church has plans, which when properly carried out, promise to save this important church for usefulness in our United Methodism.

The pastors of the Johnson City District are requesting the Holston Conference to continue the plan for saving the Johnson City Church, pledging to cooperate with the church, to raise the remaining indebtedness of Five or Six Thousand Dollars, and urge the other districts to join the efforts for the success of this movement, to save this important church, with its wonderful opportunity among the Twelve Hundred students in the Teachers College there, Four Hundred of whom are Methodists. The two significant donations of Eleven Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars, and of Ten Thousand Dollars held in a trust fund, can be available and the church saved from foreclosure, only on the condition that the other Six Thousand Dollars can be raised from other sources.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

It is with a great deal of interest and keen anxiety that we come to this session of our Holston Conference. Whether gains or losses are to be reported, we feel, that under the existing circumstances, we have done the best we could to promote the program of the church and the Kingdom of God among us. In this district by pre-conference reports, we have received Four Hundred Fifty-one persons on profession of faith, and Two Hundred Eighty-seven by transfer, making in all Seven Hundred Thirty-eight received.

The importance of evangelism has been emphasized throughout the year. Pastors and people have been urged to give much prayer and attention to our evangelistic needs.

We are expecting the pastors reports to be very encouraging concerning the Sunday Schools, their total enrollment and average attendance. During the winter, much sickness was widespread, and it was a difficult task to keep our schools up to previous records, and yet we think that this years report will compare favorably with the report of last year.

The Young Peoples Work has been emphasized and stimulated by two summer institutes, the midwinter institutes and training schools, the monthly Epworth League Unions, and by Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

The Women of the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies and the Ladies Aid Societies have had splendid successes during the year. Some new organizations have been effected. The total interests of all our women's work in the churches has had careful attention and enthusiastic promotion by faithful and efficient leaders. These organizations not only promote our Missionary and Benevolent enterprises, they deepen the spiritual lives of those related, and they also furnish a much needed social contact for our church life.

In our church activities the Laymen must be recognized as our staunch, and necessary supporters if progress is to be made. The Laymens Association with the district organization has done excellent work under the leadership of Mr. W. O. Lowe, district Vice-President. These men assist in a large way with the financial responsibilities of the local church, and do much to increase and to pay these obligations in full each year.

Much attention has been given to World Service this year, by pastors and district superintendent. The various causes have been carefully explained, and strong appeals made for their regular support. According to the latest reports from the Commission in Chicago, there will be an increase in our World Service giving this year.

Throughout the district many improvements and repairs on churches have been made. Clapps Chapel has made improvements costing Fifteen Hundred Dollars. Chestnut Hill Church, on Chestnut Hill charge, has made repairs costing Twenty Five Hundred and Seven Dollars. Whittle Springs, East Main Avenue, Pigeon Forge, Trinity Church, Maryville Circuit, and various other places where repairs and improvements have been made, bring this total up to around Five Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars. A new church is being built at Mentor.

On the burning of the church at old Ebenezer, the congregation awoke out of their lovely sleep, started to work and in two months were moved back in a much better church than they had before.

Some changes in leadership of churches has been necessary during the past year. Ebenezer Church was transferred from the Harriman to the Knoxville district, and M. K. Provence was appointed pastor. John Baxter Howes was appointed to Harriman Church in the place of A. B. Pearce, and Frank H. Trotter came to Chestnut Hill. Frank T. Branson on account of failing health, was relieved of his appointment at South Knoxville during the summer and James B. Wilson cared for the work until conference. J. Dan Gibson was relieved of the pastorate at Bungalow Town. R. L. Leslie, one of the retired ministers, passed away during the year.

Now, this is doubtless the last session of our Holston Conference. As has been expressed by others, we will have long and lingering memories of this fellowship which we are now bidding good-bye. But, it is not to oblivion that we go, but to a new and we trust a larger and more blessed fellowship in the bonds of Christian Love, and in the toil of greater sacrifices and greater victories for the great church of God on earth, and in the new companionships that this future must surely bring. Bishop and Brethren of Holston Conference We, your superintendents of this year, hail you and salute you, every one, and bid you and us God Speed and Blessings, and victory in our Lord for this year and the years that lie before us.

R. L. STAPLETON.

REPORTS

AUDITING COMMITTEE'S REPORT

To: Holston Annual Conference—Methodist Episcopal Church.

Audit of the books and records of the Preachers' Aid Society covering income and disbursement items for the Conference year 1937-38 has been made by Clifford D. Buffon and Associates, Certified Public Accountants of Chattanooga, Tennessee which shows income items as having been properly accounted for and disbursements properly supported by vouchers. In the Auditor's comments they state "We did not verify the notes by direct correspondence with the debtor nor did we trace the deeds of trust to County records. Attention is drawn to the maturity dates of these notes, several of the items being past due." In view of the long period which some of the notes have run without curtailment it would appear that a new appraisal of these properties should be made and taxes and other preferred obligations recorded against the property should be checked to determine present values.

Reserve Pension Fund:

The records of Dr. W. M. Dye, Treasurer of Reserve Pension Fund has been Audited for year ending Sept. 30th, 1939 by John I. Foster, Certified Public Accountant of Chattanooga, Tennessee. His report has been presented to the Conference and shows the fine work that has been done by Dr. Dye in handling this fund both in the matter of solocation of Funds and in the accuracy of the records kept of such funds, and he is entitled to the commendation of the whole Conference.

Conference Treasurer:

The Auditing Committee has checked the books and records of W. F. Pitts, Conference Treasurer for the year ending September 30, 1938 and found all income properly accounted for and disbursements properly supported by vouchers. We have found Dr. Pitts' books carefully and accurately kept and easy to check and the cooperation received by the Committee is greatly appreciated.

MARK M. MOORE,
CARL R. ATHEARN,
L. R. HITE,

Auditing Committee.

SOCIAL SERVICE

Your committee on social service regards the report prepared and submitted last year of such abiding value that we beg leave to incorporate the general principles therein stated as the body of this present report. We quote:

"We express the conviction that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is both personal and social; that it is the good news for the whole of life and for the entire race. Its primary appeal has always been to the individual heart and mind. It has been perpetuated among men by individuals whose inner lives have been transformed by divine grace, whose outward lives have been motivated by the mind of Christ, and who, in consequence of their spiritual experience and insight have proceeded to make its social implications an actually in everyday life. The cooperative effort of men and women who by spiritual experience, consecration, and growing social insight are completely committed to the Christian way of life is the only basis on which a progressively Christian and enduring social order can become a reality in the world.

It is our further conviction that the church, as the visible fellowship of those committed to the Christian way of life ministers to human needs that are deeper and more basic than the issues raised by current economic and social conditions. The church's fundamental mission is to stimulate those spiritual experiences and insights on which valid social ideals and institutions must ultimately rest, to exemplify the social ideals implicit in the Gospel of Christ, and to further them in human society. Since the Gospel is concerned with the whole of life, the church cannot be indifferent to any condition which affects the welfare of human beings. On controverted social and economic questions, the church, as the custodian of the Gospel, as the human fellowship professing peculiar responsiveness to the promptings of the Spirit of God in human life must act, not in a partisan spirit, but in the spirit of Christ, as the mediator between conflicting interests and classes, seeking to create in all a higher unity of purpose and cooperation for the attainment of the greater common good.

Two principles appear to be basic in the Christian social ideal, and should, in our judgment, guide the church in its social ministry: 1. The intrinsic and infinite worth of human personality; 2. A keen and ever deepening sense of social responsibility. We believe that these two principles belong together, and that the one is the correlative of the other. When they become fully operative, social maladjustments in time right themselves; when either or both are ignored, social and economic maladjustments, class consciousness and strife ensue. We believe that the present conflicts between capital and labor, with the primary concern on the one side to oppose the demands of labor in the interests of preserving the existing economic structure, and on the other side the primary interest to fight and possibly to destroy the existing economic structure in order to secure a larger share of economic goods and leisure have resulted largely from the disregard of these basic principles underlying the Christian social ideal. The degree of social justice and cooperation between all groups in society which is essential to a sound economic and social order can be achieved only by the application of these principles to all groups alike; and it is the high obligation of the church to strive toward the achievement of this end in society.

Dealing as it does in eternal truth and values, the church as such, cannot rightly commit itself to any one social and economic philosophy or plan of social and economic reconstruction, and close the door of opportunity for ministering to any group by taking a partisan attitude in politics, economics, or on social issues. While permitting and encouraging a wide range of freedom to its members to follow the dictates of their consciences as to plans and programs, the church is committed to the larger task of preventing and seeking to remedy the violation of inherent rights of human personality wherever they occur. By the very nature of the Gospel, the church is opposed to the use of violence and coercion wherever they occur, for they destroy the very values they seek to gain. The appeal of the church is and must always be to conscience and reason, to the way of love and co-operative brotherhood."

With respect to some present social conditions of world and national significance, we make the following suggestions:

In the midst of a growing war situation which might easily become a second world war we believe the peoples of the world hope and pray for a restored peace and the establishing of a real basis for a permanent and abiding peace. We regard as the only solution of this problem the teaching and practice of the gospel of Christ, as it seeks to establish the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man among all races and nationalities and seeks also to make clear the supreme sacredness of human personality, and the sacred rights of minority peoples. On no other foundation can peace be procured and maintained. Whatever action our present congress may take, we hope it will be unswerving in the direction of such permanent peace. May we as a nation be spared any action that would seek to bring to our people a false and temporary prosperity at the expense of a war torn world.

As we confront the present liquor situation, we urge that our members personally abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages, and that in every church we refuse to place in position of leadership any who by precept or example encourage the sale or use of alcoholic beverages.

Respectfully submitted,

D. W. DONALDSON, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

Your board has finished another year of its work, fulfilling to the best of its ability the responsibilities of carrying out the will of the Church for the training of its ministry, and guiding the young men who have been called by God to be prophets and priests, to enthusiastic yet careful scholarship.

The work of the Board falls in three classifications: graduate courses, undergraduate courses, and courses for accepted supply pastors. The first of these is not as strong as it should be in our Conference. We recommend that district and sub-district groups organize and enroll for graduate courses. The second type of work is of high quality due to the excellent and thorough endeavor of the instructors of the Board. If at times the students think the grading is low, it is true on the other hand that those who pass the courses are worthy of entrance into our ministry. The work with accepted supply pastors is spotty. Some who hold this relation are very faithful. Others give little if any attention to their studies.

The Board is pleased to note that our young men are using the Theological Schools. The four who complete the required work of graduation and ordination this year do so "under the Seminary rule."

The Athens Summer School of Ministerial Training was in session from June 12-22, 1939, with about the usual attendance. Two brethren from beyond our borders instructed and inspired us. Professor Oscar M. Buck of Drew Theological Seminary lectured on "A Christian Gospel for the World." Dr. W. K. Anderson, pastor of the Franklin Methodist Church in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, lectured in the field of Practical Homiletics. The School was unusually blessed in a visit of our Educational Director, Dr. Allan MacRossie.

Since Conferences co-operating in the Summer School will participate in the current Methodistic process of "becoming one people," the future of the Summer School has received serious consideration. Much conferring, counselling and correspondence have produced the concurrence of the Board in a proposal for the coming year, which makes our Summer School a part of a joint Summer School at Emory and Henry College, June 13-22, 1940.

The Board recognizes its great indebtedness to the Commission on Courses of Study and the leadership of its Educational Director, Dr. Allan MacRossie. We were glad to welcome Dr. MacRossie to this session of our Holston Conference.

The Chairman of this Board wishes to take this occasion to thank the other members for their kindness and wisdom in counsel, for thoroughness in routine, for the blessing which they have been to him in Christian fellowship.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. CURTIS,

R. A. KILBURN.

RESOLUTIONS
TO THE HOLSTON CONFERENCE IN SESSION
TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH
OCTOBER 5th, 1939

Whereas the Conference Secretary, Dr. O. R. Tarwater, did not receive enough money last year to pay for the printing of the Conference minutes, and found it necessary to borrow $70.00 from the Entertainment Fund for which Dr. Wm. F. Pitts holds a note, We, the Entertainment Committee request the Conference to cancel this seventy dollar note.

And secondly, since this year's minutes will cost more than in previous years and there will be a larger demand for the minutes because they will be last of the Holston Methodist Episcopal Conference, and in case the Conference Secretary does not have sufficient funds to pay for the minutes this year, that the Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, The Rev. Solon McNeese, be authorized to supplement this fund, if and when this Session is paid for and there are funds for such use and there is the need.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee on Conference Entertainment.

SOLON McNEESE, Chairman.

IMPORTANT EXPLANATION:—A Lawsuit and an injunction against the Conference and the Treasurer prevent paying all current funds for the present. I have placed a star after the amount I am holding by order of the Court, and on advice of our Attorney, General James A. Fowler, until the injunction can be dissolved or modified so as to release our funds which go to Benevolent Boards. The funds I am holding do not properly belong to the Conference, but to the Denomination at large. I am holding other funds also which do belong to the Conference pending the settlement of the lawsuit.

EXHIBIT B—Statement of Operating Income and Expense for the year ended September 30, 1939.

October 2, 1939.

Mr. Oliver R. Tarwater, Secretary,
Holston Conference of the Methodist Church,
Maryville, Tennessee.
Dear Sir:

I have audited the books of account and other records of the Reserve Pension Fund of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Church, as maintained by the Treasurer and Field Agent, Dr. William M. Dye, Etowah, Tennessee, for the year ended September 30, 1939.

The scope of my examination consisted of a detailed audit of the cash receipts and disbursements for the period, and a verification of the existence and values of the recorded assets.

The results are presented in the accompanying Exhibits and Schedules, which have been arranged as outlined in the Table of Contents on the preceding page.

* * * *

Estate Notes and Wills have been treated as Intangible Assets and set forth in a separate caption in the Balance Sheet.

There are no liabilities, other than the contingent liability for annuity payments in subsequent years, which is an indeterminate amount, owing to the nature of the Annuity Contracts. Annuities paid during the year ended September 30, 1939, amounted to $3,218.00. The values at which these Annuity Contracts were recorded in your records, are approximately $33,000.00 less than the estimated values of the properties acquired.

* * * *

It will be observed in Exhibit B, that the Income from Real Estate is sufficient to cover Real Estate Expense, that there is sufficient earning from Interest on Cash Deposited with the Board of Pension and Relief to pay your contribution to the Conference, and that your Treasurer and Field Agent, Dr. Dye, has administered the affairs of his office at a total cost of $554.21 for administrative expenses for the year ended September 30, 1939.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN I. FOSTER,
Certified Public Accountant.

1. There is a contingent liability of an indeterminate amount, consisting of the annuities to be paid during subsequent years. For the year ended September 30, 1939, the total annuity payments aggregated $3,218.00.

2. The authorized salary of Dr. William M. Dye, Treasurer, has not been paid for the past seven years. Inasmuch as Dr. Dye waives any claim for this salary, there has been an indirect contribution to the Reserve Pension Fund of $14,000.00, due to this amount of saving in the operating expenses.

Memoirs

REV. WILLIAM S. BANDY

William S. Bandy, a member of the Holston Conference from 1894 till his death in 1938, was born in North Carolina, April 26, 1857. He was married to Miss Mary Hamblen in October, 1880. To this union were born six children, two sons and four daughters.

Brother Bandy was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1894 and into full membership in 1896. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Foster and Elder by Bishop Vincent. During his active pastorate he served the following charges: Fall Branch, Rogersville, Surgoinsville, Greeneville Circuit, Chuckey, Dandridge, Nickelsville, Chestnut Hill and Morristown Circuit.

This soldier of the cross was never happier than when it was his privilege to preach or sing in a revival meeting. He liked to sing, and the people heard him gladly. He was a good man and did a good work.

It was on the eighth day of November, 1938 in Greene County, after months of illness, that his tired and sick body put off the robe of flesh and after the funeral service conducted by his pastor, Rev. Willis H. Johnson, and his District Superintendent, Rev. D. B. Cooper, was laid to rest in the beautiful Cemetery at Mount Pleasant.

WALTER A. SMITH.

REV. ELBERT GORDON GILLESPIE

The Rev. Elbert Gordon Gillespie was born February 25, 1880 in Scott County, Virginia. He passed to his heavenly reward April 3, 1939 at Baileyton, Tenn.

He was married to Miss Mattie Leonard, October 9, 1909, to this union were born one daughter Hazel, two sons Bovard and Goodell. He is survived by his wife and children.

Brother Gillespie was licensed to preach at the age of nineteen years, and served as supply pastor for twenty-six years, before he became a member of the Conference, however, in 1925 he became a full member of the Holston Conference. His entire ministry was spent in the Bristol and Johnson City districts, and serving the following charges: Benhams, Salem, Pennington Gap, Christiansburg, Marion, Gate City, Sulphur Springs, Greeneville Circuit, Kingsport Circuit, Telford, Surgoinsville and at the time of his death he was serving for the second time the Baileyton charge.

His death was a great shock to his family and to his friends. He had preached three times on Sunday, and it was said by those who heard him that he preached with unusual liberty and power, and Monday morning while working about his garden, he was taken suddenly from among us.

Brother Gillespie was evangelistic in his preaching, and hundreds of people were converted under his ministry, during the last five months of his life, over a hundred people were converted in his revivals.

He preached and believed that the "Gospel was the power of God unto Salvation unto all who heard and believed."

Funeral services were held in the Baileyton Church by Revs. D. B. Cooper, J. F. Reed, W. A. Smith and W. H. Johnson, and his body was taken to the Vermont Church on the Kingsport Circuit where it was buried after a short service was conducted by the Rev. Dan H. Graham of the Presbyterian Church a friend and co-laborer in evangelistic work.

His son the Rev. William Bovard Gillespie took the place of his father as pastor of the Baileyton Charge.

Brother Gillespie was a loyal Father and Husband. He loved his people and never forgot a friend.

Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.

With saints enthroned on high,
Thou doest thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God salvation cry,
Salvation to the Lamb.

Of all thy heart's desire
Triumphantly possessed;
Lodged by the ministerial choir
In thy redeemers breast.

Redeemed from earth and pain,
Ah! when shall we ascend,
And all in Jesus' presence reign
With our translated friend?

REV. ISAAC B. LEONARD

Rev. Isaac B. Leonard was born at Wallace, Virginia, July 27, 1867, and on the 29th day of October, 1891, was married to Miss Sarah Leonard who shared with him his many pastoral experiences. Brother Leonard departed this life at his home in Greeneville, Tennessee, Thursday morning, March 16, 1939. The members of his family left to mourn his going are his wife, one daughter, Charmie, and three sons, C. M., Scott and Alvin.

Brother Leonard was ordained Deacon by Bishop Fowler in 1901 and Elder by Bishop Cranston in 1905. During the more than forty years of active ministry, he served in the Virginia and the Holston Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the Holston Conference, he served the following charges: Pattonville, Greendale, Bloomingdale, Greeneville Circuit, Baileyton and Whitehorn, South Greeneville Circuit, Chuckey, Morristown Circuit and Limestone.

Brother Leonard was a good pastor and a faithful shepherd of his flock. His funeral service was held in the Asbury Memorial Methodist Church at Greeneville. Rev. D. B. Cooper, District Superintendent and the pastor, Walter A. Smith, were in charge. The tired and pain-racked body was laid to rest in Oak Grove Cemetery.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

WALTER A. SMITH.

REV. ROBERT LEE LESLIE

Robert Lee Leslie was born in Wythe County, Virginia, September 21, 1870, and departed this life at his home in Inskip, Tennessee, on February 1, 1939.

On March 17, 1898, he was married to Miss May Currin. To this union four sons and three daughters were born. He is survived by his widow; four sons, Bruce, Ray and Ralph, all of Knoxville, and Rupert Leslie, of Louisville, Ky.; two daughters, Mrs. Roy Williams, Knoxville, and Mrs. George Kelsey of Muscoda, Wis. The other daughter, Velma Virginia, died several years ago. There are also several brothers and sisters surviving.

Early in life Brother Leslie professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. When quite a young man he felt the call and accepted God's challenge to enter the ministry. In 1896 he joined the Virginia Conference; was ordained Deacon by Bishop Goodsell in 1898; Elder by Bishop Fowler, 1901. He served seven charges in the Virginia Conference; Marion; Russell; Nickelsville; Mendota; Pennington Gap; Washington and Marion, from 1896 until 1907, when he transferred to the Holston Conference. He was recognized and regarded as a successful and efficient pastor in Holston Conference as he served the following charges: Greendale, 1907; Burrville, 1908-09; Andersonville, 1910; Surgoinville, 1911; New Salem, 1912; Lenoir City Circuit, 1913; Maynardville, 1917; and Heiskell, 1918-19. He held the Supernumerary relation during 1914-16, and retired in 1922.

The Methodist Ministry is somewhat like the Army. When a man joins the Army he not only expects to receive orders, but he promises to obey them. When a man joins a Methodist Conference he not only asks for an appointment, but he promises to accept it, and go wherever he is sent. For twenty-four years Brother Leslie was a good soldier in that he accepted his appointments and went wherever he was sent, serving some of the harder and less prominent charges throughout Southwest Virginia and East Tennessee.

Although in declining health for several years, Brother Leslie demonstrated a keen interest, and took an active part, in the work of the church in his local community and throughout the City of Knoxville. On the Sunday immediately before his death he assisted Rev. George J. Creswell in administering the Holy Communion at Second Methodist Church. That same evening he preached from the pulpit of the Inskip Methodist Church, where he and his family were habitual worshippers.

Funeral services were held in the Inskip Methodist Church. Rev. W. L. Roberts, Pastor, and Rev. E. H. Ogle, District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. A. C. Hutson and Rev. A. Blaine Burgess, neighbor ministers, officiated. Burial was in Brookwalter Cemetery, Knoxville.

RICHARD E. WALKER

The Rev. Richard E. Walker, son of James A. Walker and Mary Thompson Walker, was born in Hawkins County, Tennessee, November 12, 1873. He entered into his eternal rest from his home near Greeneville, Tenn., June 27, 1939, having attained the age of sixty-five years, seven months and fifteen days. He was converted in early life and felt his call to the ministry and began his preparation for his life's work as a circuit rider of the Methodist Church. He received his education in the schools of Greene county and Grant University of Athens, Tenn. After some preparation for his ministry he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Elizabeth Fink, to this union was born four children, two sons and two daughters, who together with their mother mourn the loss of their father and husband.

He was admitted on trial, Holston Conference, in 1904; full membership 1906; ordained Deacon by Bishop Warren, 1904; Elder by Bishop Anderson, 1908.

Holston; Newport Circuit, 1904; Oakland Circuit, 1905-6; Jonesboro, 1907-08; New Salem, 1909-10; Chucky, 1911-13, Sulphur Springs, 1914-15; Rogersville—Whitehorn, 1916; Baileyton and Whitehorn, 1917-18; Greeneville Circuit, 1919-20; Parrottsville, 1921-25; Baileyton, 1926-27; Elizabethton, 1928; Chucky, 1929-31; Limestone, 1932; Conference Evangelist, 1933-34; Retired 1935; and after retirement he served the Jefferson City Circuit until September 26, 1938, at which time he suffered a stroke of paralysis and was confined to his home until God called him to his eternal reward.

He was a strong preacher of the old fashioned gospel. He believed the Bible with all his heart and saw many souls won to Christ. He won a host of friends because of his genial good fellowship, and was loved by all who knew him. His was a sacrificial ministry, others left their gifts before the altar, he placed himself upon the altar, going far and near to assist the brethren in their work, spending more time away from the fellowship of his family than most any other man in the Conference. He never counted the cost, he braved the storms, endured hardships, fought valiantly, and toiled uncomplainingly on small salaries. He welcomed the hard fields, and won the promised crown. He was great enough to put all the kingdoms of the world behind him rather than forfeit his birthright as a son of God. He stood in the open and proclaimed his message.

June the 27th, after enjoying a very hearty meal, the end came very suddenly and he was changed from glory to glory by the spirit of the Lord.

Funeral services were conducted by Willis H. Johnson, Dr. D. B. Cooper and Rev. W. A. Brown. Interment was in the Cross Anchor Cemetery.

The large attendance and beautiful flowers bore testimony to the esteem in which he was held by friends and relatives.

We commend the bereaved ones to the care of Him who loves and cares for all.

WILLIS H. JOHNSON

OUR SAINTED DEAD

"These all died in the faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth."

ENABLING ACTS

WHEREAS the Methodist Episcopal Church; the Methodist Episcopal Church South; and the Methodist Protestant Church, each according to the constitutional provisions of their respective denominations have united to form the Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS in the Declaration of Union under date of May 10, 1939, the regularly elected delegates to the Uniting Conference called for the purpose of completing the act of union, did, in the City of Kansas City, Missouri, on the above date, declare as follows:

"The Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, in adopting the name 'THE METHODIST CHURCH' for the united Church, do not and will not surrender any right, interest in and title to these respective names which by long and honored use and association, have become dear to the ministry and membership of the three uniting churches and have become enshrined in their history and records."

"The Methodist Church is the ecclesiastical and legal successor to these three uniting churches and through which the three churches as one United Church shall continue to live and have their existence, continue their institutions, hold and enjoy their property, exercise and perform their several trusts in accord with the Discipline of the United Church; and such trusts or corporate bodies as exist in the constituent Churches shall continue as long as legally necessary; and

WHEREAS, the properly constituted delegates to the said Uniting Conference did define the powers of Annual Conferences and describe their geographical boundaries, by which description it is provided that there shall be an Annual Conference to be known as the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, situated in the States of Tennessee and Virginia, in accordance with boundaries defined in the Discipline of 1939; and did provide that Conferences, or portions of Conferences, together with their corporate boards, institutions and associations of whatever nature, lying within the aforesaid geographical limits shall automatically become integral parts of the new Conference thus formed; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with permissive legislation of the several denominations thus merging, many of the local churches are bodies corporate under the laws of the State, and whose directors, or trustees, are elected by the merging Conferences, or one of them."

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Church that each local church now incorporated under the laws of the State in which it is located and operating under the authority of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, be hereby authorized to continue to function through its existing corporation and become amenable to the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, and any authority of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is hereby delegated to the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.
